

1

Connect strings and grab all ingredients and spices inside the area enclosed

2

Make sets of ingredients and combine them with their spices to score

3

Place your disc inside the area you enclosed. Connected discs also score points!

Wok On is a game made entirely of strings and bits. You'll set up a string circle (the wok) and spread ingredients and spices there. Then, you'll use your strings to enclose areas, trying to grab the ones that will create the best meal!

Game highlights

- Table presence: the unusual "board" and the game being made entirely by bits draws attention.
- Tiktok-friendly: the feel of the game can be explained and demoed in a short-form video.
- Non-obvious decisions: scoring conditions are simple, but sometimes at odds with each other.

Components

- One long circular string
- 36 short strings
- 60 ingredient cubes
- 16 spice discs
- 72 player discs
- 4 player aids
